CHARITABLE TRUST

Sant Sachcha Baba ji
Maharaj

Shri Sachcha Ashram, Arail, Allahabad

Sant Shri Sachcha Baba Ji Maharaj was a spiritual master. He worked for humanity for a long period. His objective was to make a social change through spiritual enlightenment. He left his body on 6th September, 1983. His motive was to bring peace happiness in society.

At Allahabad Ashram practising yoga, meditation and spiritualism are regular activities. Other than that we've taken the following initiatives at Allahabad ashram for uplifting the society.

- School for providing free education to the poor students
- Ayurvedic dispensary providing free services to the people
- A PG and B.Ed. college for promoting Sanskrit language in the world

Sachcha Manav Sewa Sansthan Making a Social Change

Sachcha Manav Sewa Sansthan has been set up a Non-government Organisation (NGO) running by Paramhans Swami Rajinder Ji Maharaj. This trust is the outcome of a pledge taken over by Swami Rajinder ji in 1983, when Sant Shri Sachcha Baba ji left his body. To carry on the mission of Sant Shri Sachcha Baba Ji (Swami Ji's Spiritual Master).

The objective of this trust is to make a social change through spiritual enlightenment. Our mission is to develop people through spiritually, culturally & socially.

As our vision is to bring social change by changing ourselves. So Maharaj Ji established one ashram in Allahabad in 1944 on the banks of Ganga River and many more ashrams are established at various places of India. They bring changes in humanity in many ways like :

- Be loving toward everyone you meet
- Forgive all who attempt to harm you
- Always seek knowledge and truth
- Always be honest
- Be grateful for all that you have.
- Have faith in something greater than yourself.
